How to WALK.—Walk with the toes thrown outward.

Walk with the chin raised above a horizontal line, as if looking at the top of a carriage.

Sit with the lower part of the spine pressed against the chairback.

It is a sad thing to see as one passes along the street so many beautiful young people walk about shouldered with crooked spines, thus dignifying for themselves premature graves, all of which is easily avoidable.—National Educator.

Wild geese are already flying northward—a sign of early spring.

The long-suffering gardener who has year after year had his seeds and plants snatched up by his neighbor's hen is at last about to get his revenge. He has been successful in another year for stealing a chicken.

When the case was called before the Judge, Magistrate it was shown that the chicken was down into the defendant's yard, and consequently he was discharged. Now, when your neighbor's hen comes in to scratch up your garden, just keep them. That's what the above decided means.

From a Michigan paper we take the following:—Miss Maria Martin, aged six, died at her home in Bay Mills, March 6th, 1893. Tene was the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Martin, who came to Bay Mills from Stirling, Canada, a few months ago. The cause of her death was scarlet fever, which ended her suffering in a few days, although she had the best care and medical treatment. She was a beautiful child, and was loved by all who knew her. Her body lies in the Lake View cemetery at Mission Hill, where she was laid to rest on Tuesday, March 7, 1893, at 4 o'clock, Rev. W. E. Brown officiating. She waits on the beautiful shore to welcome the loved ones who are left behind. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of the entire community.

The entertainment given in the Methodist Church by Miss Belle Lord Bailey on Monday evening last was a grand success in every respect. There was a large audience present, and the rendering of the musical pieces by the talented eleventh year was a delight to all. There were also some well done recitations, and the rendering of "Life for Life" showed high dramatic power; and the "Exercise of a Genius" was heartily enjoyed, and drew forth a well-merited cheer which was heartily responded to by the entire company. "Mamma's Little Boy" was the other piece on the programme were heartily enjoyed.

Taken altogether the entertainment was one of the best ever given in Stirling, and such as it is not often our citizens have the privilege of listening to. We witnessed a number of the best given in Stirling, and such as it is not often our citizens have the privilege of listening to. Stirling, April 18th, 1893.

Mrs. MARY GILBERT.—The congregation of St. John's Church, Stirling, on Sunday, April 16th, 1893, presented to the Rev. Mr. Martin a beautiful and valuable gift, in the form of a silver service, consisting of a tea set, a coffee set, and a dessert set, all of which were purchased by the ladies of the church, and presented to the Rev. Mr. Martin as a token of their appreciation of his services to the church and community.

The Rev. Mr. Martin, in his acceptance of the gift, expressed his appreciation of the ladies' generosity, and his hope that the gift would be used for the benefit of the church and community.

Spectators on all trains. A special train will save for the east as 10 to 15 cents. It is offered as the largest ever given in this district, and should attract a large crowd.

At a meeting of the Village Council held on the 13th inst., by-laws were passed to restrain horses, cows, sheep, and other animals, from running at large, from running at large within the corporation at any time; and to grant licenses to parties to sell meat in less quantities than quarter carcasses within the corporation. Offenders against this by-law, will be convicted, be punished by a fine of $100 dollars, and on default of payment of said fine and costs, to be imprisoned in the common goal for thirty days. Both by-laws to be in force on and after the last day of May next.

On Saturday last, Richard Reid, a young immigrant, aged about ten, met with a very painful accident at Mr. J. A. Lennigan's, a little rest of here. Mr. Lennigan was in the act of feeding a horse, the young fellow looking on, when the horse kicked him in the face, cutting a big slash in his cheek, and also knocking out several teeth. He was immediately brought to the village and Dr. Parker dressed the cut. The little fellow stated the operation was a man, and was just arrived at Mr. Lennigan's, from the Marchmont House, Belleville, the day before. He is now doing nicely.

The annual meeting of the Epworth League of Christian Endeavor in connection with the Stirling Methodist Church was held in the basement of the church on Tuesday evening April 18th, 1893. The officers elected for the ensuing year are as follows:—President—G. L. Scott. First Vice President—Mrs. Watta. Second Vice President—Miss A. Graham. Third—Miss A. S. Martin. Secretary—Mr. S. P. Martin. Treasurer—Mr. W. Hagerman.

The league has 22 active and 16 associate members. Regular meetings are held on Tuesday evening, and a cordial invitation is extended to all the young people of the community to attend the meetings.

Teachers' Institutes.

A circular received from Mr. Wm. Mackintosh, Inspector of Schools for North Hastings, says:—"For the purpose of helping teachers to improve and refresh their minds more efficiently, Teachers' Institutes will be held as follows:—

At Stirling, on April 21st, at Madoc, on April 28th, and at Marchmont on May 12th. Each meeting will begin promptly at 10:30 a. m. In each case there will be an evening session. The subjects discussed will be:—Reading, Grammar, Composition, Arithmetic, Mental and Moral Science in the school room. These subjects will, as far as possible, be dealt with by conferences, in which every one will be expected to take part. Opportunities will be afforded for questions on other matters connected with teaching and school management. Later in the season an Institute will, if possible, be held at Bancroft.
